Graced with Hollywood History

This 1991 Kerry Joyce designed custom-built home is evocative of the Hamptons and is located in one of the most private guarded celebrity enclaves. Recent interior designs and renovations by Rachel Ashwell of Rachel Ashwell Shabby Chic Couture.

Ebonized hardwood floors and fabulous crown & base moldings throughout are just some of the quality details in this romantically emotional home. Walled and gated stone courtyard leads to koi pond. High ceilings in the formal living room and dining room. The restaurant-style gourmet kitchen leads to breakfast room then out to the stone courtyard. The media/family room opens out to the serene totally private and secure lushly landscaped park-like grounds and swimming pool. There is an office/library, and gym. The master suite has a sitting area with French doors that open to a large deck with view of the grounds.
